Confidential:

For the attention of Tech Nation

In regard to the consultancy of Mr. Bibhudendu Panda for the Global Talent status in the field of digital technology.

I, B S VS Ramachander, Vice President at Coempt Edu Teck Pvt Ltd., Hyderabad, India, a digital solutions provider founded in April 2000 with the intent of tackling complex business problems utilising the power of distributed computing , artificial intelligence , digital technology such as Agile manifesto, Microservice architecture, Cloud computing and Internet-of-things.

I have known Mr. Bibhudendu Panda since 2019. I had the pleasure of working with him on his assignment in Biju Pattnaik University of Technology(BPUT),Odisha for a major digital transformation programme for AI Proctored On Line Exam where one of my team from my company was working on the same project but for building the reports for business users from the Hadoop ecosystem (AI Chatbot) which Bibhudendu built. I was the point of contact from my company to AI Proctored On Line Exam , since it was a collaborative effort from BIBHUDENDU's RIMS Organisation and my company , hence I was in contact with Bibhudendu for the requirement and clarification . I know Mr. Bibhudendu Panda is in the current capacity of Technical architect – data at RIMS, Rourkela.

Bibhudendu proved to have an exceptional digital product expertise in cloud, application modernisation, digital automation and artificial intelligence, Agile and DevOps methodologies and soon after our professional collaboration he agreed to voluntarily mentor my team outside his daily job.

Through a set of well-structured sessions on topics such as industrial insights, trends in DevOps, Continuous Integration/Continuous Delivery, Cloud transformation, artificial Intelligence, Internet-of-things, application modernisation and integrating various systems and application, setting up centre of competency growth and revenue in the market.

He frequently holds online mentoring sessions on:

- How to accelerate cloud adoption
- How to modernise legacy application using cloud native development
- Overview of container platform and how to leverage it in application modernisation journey
- Deep Dive on Microservices platform

Our organisation benefited from Bibhudendu's regular mentoring and we incorporate these niche technologies in our product development (Build offerings e.g Software as a Services (SaaS) offerings, enhance consulting services capabilities, increased knowledge transfer, achievements of goals and objectives, motivation for professional development and accountability.

In addition to mentoring, I have seen him frequently participating in tech forums and conferences, sharing his knowledge and ideas on latest digital technology trends. His areas of interest and expertise include

- Application Cloud Affinity Assessment- Design roadmap to modernize IT with Cloud, and build the business benefits case for transformation across the application portfolio and enterprise architecture.
- Cloud adoption with quick migration PoC (Proof Of Concept)- which includes application migration to cloud with integration to DevOps tool chain for continuous integration, Continuous delivery and Continuous testing allowing process between development and operations teams.

The Biju Pattnaik University of Technology (BPUT), Odisha has one of the most evolved infrastructure and it is conscious of the fact it is leading the way in bringing liberal values to the culture of the digital world. This provides an apt environment for leaders like Bibhudendu to thrive upon the skills, knowledge and wisdom they have earned to become mature and to grow their potential. This will make Bibhudendu one of the great assets to the digital economy.

I will be happy to answer any question regarding this letter on my professional experience with and personal view of Bibhudendu.

Yours sincerely,

Ramachander
